TracTime™ Got The Gold!

We have worked very hard over the past year to attain the highest possible level of recognition from Microsoft.

TracTime™ has received the Gold Certified Partner designation for scheduling software both in the office and on mobile devices. But, why is this important to you? Our focus has resulted in some of the benefits outlined below.

Workforce Productivity—Larger quantities of information are available to large groups of people faster. Information necessary for business processes formerly available only to top management is now readily available for the entire team.

Personal Productivity—Individuals are able to organize, access and share information effortlessly. Not only is their job made easier, others are able to take advantage of others' work products.

Mobile Productivity—Convenience of instant mobile access to schedules, subcontractors via email or Fax, options, punchlist items and homeowner walk items is now a reality. Microsoft found that 93% of Windows Mobile users stay on schedule better than their counterparts and add at least three hours of productivity to their work week!

Team Productivity—Increased team productivity is the result of using our products. Workers are more likely to follow-up on action items and share their information with others. This helps teams to:

- Better manage and track tasks
- Share knowledge with team members
- Collaborate on information efficiently
- Organize effective meetings
